CENTRAL OHIO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

Box 1561, Dublin, OH 43017

January 2025

When: 7 p.m., Jan. 15

Where: Oakstone Academy
900 Club Dr., Westerville

Presenter: John Roberts

Topic: Pattern 1878 silver dollars

January meeting

The Morgan Dollar is one of the most familiar coins to collectors. Its several design changes are also widely known. What is not common knowledge are the versions that preceded its production. This month's presentation is an exploration of Morgan's 1878 patterns. - John

November meeting

Gerry Tebben and John Roberts combined to present the story of two individuals who issued Civil War tokens in Columbus: John Grether and Mary Ann Van Houten. Gerry provided each of their personal stories as to how they came to issue the tokens, while John then presented the numismatic details of the tokens

Secretary's report

President Stephen Petty called the meeting to order @7PM

SECRETARY'S REPORT (Chris Palmer): Chris read the minutes from the October meeting. First and second motions to approve the minutes were received. The members gave approval by voice vote.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS REPORT (Alexandra Petty): Lexa initially stated there were 33 members in attendance with one guest, Josie Penn...who is Garlene Smithson's granddaughter. Later, Lexa revised the total member attendance figure to 37.

TREASURER'S REPORT (Jim Huffman): Per Jim, as of 10/01/24, the starting bank account balance = $7,849.62. There were no deposits made and only one outlay of $24 to Oakstone (cookies), leaving the ending bank balance as of 10/31/24 = $7,825.62. Petty cash had a starting balance of $684.28. Increases of $27.50 from the October auction + $62 from the split-the-pot (total $404.00/split $202) brought that amount up to $773.78. After payments of $302.41 ($30.00 for door prizes, $51.03 to Gerry Tebben for office supplies, $216 for the Club's P.O. box, & $5.38 for engraving), the ending petty cash balance = $471.37. The Business Premier Plus account rose from $39,914.58 to $40,044.80. A motion to approve Jim's report was received, seconded & approved.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT (Stephen Petty): Steve advised that the issues which caused last month's "dust up" had been resolved.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS: Marie Gibbs provided a summary of the items discussed at the BOD meeting held Tuesday, 11/19: 1) ANA Summer Seminar scholarship award, 2) budgets, 3) presentation of yearly proposed budget will be at November BOD meeting and the actual budget will be at BOD May meeting, 4) possible grading seminar, 5) $$ for Christmas dinner approved, & 6) Lexa Petty will now be co-ordinating the August picnic, with Chris Palmer assisting her

The meeting was adjourned @9:26 PM, at which time the CONA Club auction began -- Chris Palmer

Scenes from the Christmas banquet

The banquet was a grand evening.

Lexa Petty saw to everything from a fine menu to numerous wrapped gifts. ANA President Tom Uram and Gov. Dave Heinrich joined us. Pete Miller led us in grace as he has for several years. Tom gave everyone his newest challenge coin, which cryptically includes the initials of numerous mint engravers, and added to the evening's festivities with a Christmas quiz. (Question 16: Christmas trees grow naturally in how many U.S. states?)

Awards

CENTER: CONA President Steve Petty presents the CONA President's Award to Tony Cass, the Star Award to Patty Cass and the President's Award to Chris Palmer.
